Human Resource Topics For Paper:

Advanced Methods for Human Resource Management Research Paul Joseph-Richard, 2025-01-03 Understanding and applying research methods is a key skill in human resource management. This new textbook shows how to successfully complete a research project across the HR function. Advanced Methods for Human Resource Management Research provides a practice-based approach to planning and implementing research projects. Each chapter focuses on one HRM practice and a Method in Focus feature that shows how a particular method could be used for researching that practice. This enables postgraduate Research Methods students to gain an understanding of how research may be most effectively conducted for different aspects of HR from recruitment selection and people analytics to learning and development, sustainable HRM and employee wellbeing. This book offers comprehensive guidance on what kinds of questions can be asked and the application of current designs and methods. Readers will learn how to conduct both qualitative and quantitative research such as interviews and literature reviews using Big Data, social media and visuals as well as creating cross-country designs to engage international participants. It is supported by learning outcomes, real-world examples, discussion questions and ethical dilemma exercises to develop critical understanding of the material. Online resources include lecturer slides, annotated web links, further reading and new reflective questions for students. This textbook is written for postgraduate HR students taking Research Methods modules as part of their degree. Handbook of Research on Artificial Intelligence in Human Resource Management Strohmeier, Stefan, 2022-03-08 This cutting-edge Handbook offers a comprehensive introduction to the emerging research field of artificial intelligence (AI) in human resource management (HRM). Broadly mapping AI fields relevant for HR, it not only considers the more well-known areas of machine learning and natural language processing but also lesser-known fields such as affective computing and robotic process automation. Research in Personnel and Human Resources Management M. Human Resources for the Non-HR Manager Carol T. Kulik,Elissa L. Perry,2023-05-02 Human Resources for the Non HR Manager gives every manager regardless of their functional role access to cutting edge research and evidence based recommendations so they can approach their people management responsibilities with confidence Day to day people management is increasingly the responsibility of front line managers not HR professionals But managers are often poorly prepared for these responsibilities they receive little training and sometimes have little interest in HR People management is never easy and it is particularly challenging in COVID 19 s next normal workplace where managers must engage diverse employees across a wide range of working arrangements This book focuses on the special relationship that line managers have with their employees and describes managers responsibilities across the entire employee lifecycle from front end recruiting and hiring through to long term retention The content is grounded in rigorous academic research but the book s conversational tone conveys basic principles without technical jargon Each chapter includes Manager s Checkpoints to help readers apply the material to their own workplace and Manager s Knots that address gray areas inherent in people management The book is designed for any reader currently working as a line manager or aspiring to a managerial role who wants to improve their people management skills Combined with a complete instructor package the book provides different types of activities to accompany each chapter Some Assembly Required In the News and Undercover Manager The activities can be found in the Instructor Resources Download Hub and are designed to align with student cohorts with varying levels of experience A full suite of regularly updated resources for students and instructors can be found on the authors own website <https://www.nonhrmanager.com>
