The Semiotics of Love Marcel Danesi, 2019-07-30 The Semiotics of Love brings together work on early symbolism literary practices and contemporary communication on the theme of romance and the idea of love to forge an understanding of the semiotic cultural side of romance Moving beyond psychological and neuroscientific scholarly analyses of love Marcel Danesi works to interrogate the cultural constructions of love across societies This book analyzes romantic love from the general perspective of semiotics that is from its more generic interpretive angle rather than its more technical one The specific analytical lens used is based on the notion that we convert our feeling structures into sign structures words symbols and sign based constructions texts rituals etc which then allow us to reflect upon something cognitively rather than just experience it physically and emotionally

Why We Love The Dogs We Do Stanley Coren, 2012-12-11 For anyone who has worried that being beguiled by puppy love might lead only to a short lived dalliance Stanley Coren provides the ultimate matchmaking service Combining his expertise in human psychology and animal behaviour with the research of other animal experts Coren classifies dogs according to such personality traits as friendliness protectiveness and steadiness To discover which dogs will suit them best readers take simple personality tests that reveal what they are looking for in a relationship Extroverted men for example may be surprised to find that poodles make the ideal companions shy women are likely to prefer the company of a bulldog and men lacking trust might consider an independent Shar Pei Stories about people and their four legged best friends and a gallery of photographs capture the special dynamics between couples ranging from Freud and his Chow Chow to Picasso and his Afghan hound

Cruelty and obscenity. Why people love to be afraid Anonymous,2024-01-31 Seminar paper from the year 2023 in the subject Philosophy Philosophy of the present grade 0 8 language English abstract Whether popular films such as Conjuring Halloween or Scream horror films are becoming more and more popular every year The beginning of this widespread popularity started as early as 1913 with the creation of the first major horror movie in Germany The Student of Prague 1 Over the decades there was an abrupt development in the film industry Horror films were no longer designed solely to shock their viewers but rather to terrify them through the use of effects This development continues to this day with scenes and storylines based on making them as realistic as possible In view of this fact obscene and at the same time provocative depictions have emerged without any form of morality or sense of guilt 2 Thus the sole purpose of cinematic horror is to maintain the taboo 3 The reason why we as humans feel a desire to be creeped out to be afraid or even to indulge in fear has been the subject of clear attempts to clarify for some time Many who deal with this question assume that the main cause is the effect that is based on the reaction to what is shown However evolution and our role at that time also represent an important point This seminar paper will attempt to find an answer and thus a reason for the far reaching popularity of the horror genre In addition the dangers of realism in today s film industry will be explained Various perspectives approaches and theories will serve as a methodology to clarify the aforementioned questions In order to convey a general understanding of exactly what aspects the genre of horror contains it is important to go into the scenic methods it claims for itself and to show the versatility of the mode of representation Subsequently as an introductory part to the main question of this elaboration an attempt is made to establish a definition of fear Various approaches to the question of why people love to be afraid are then presented In addition the consequences that go hand in hand with the brutality and realism of the portrayal are presented Finally the insights gained from the seminar paper are evaluated and briefly summarized A Theory of Love Margaret Bradham Thornton,2018-05-08 A follow up to her successful debut Charleston and set in the world s most glamorous landscapes this moving new love story from Margaret Bradham Thornton draws on a metaphor of entanglement theory to ask when two people collide are they forever attached no matter where they are Helen Gibbs a British journalist on assignment on the west coast of Mexico meets Christopher Delavaux an intriguing half French half American lawyer turned financier who has come alone to surf Living lives that never stop moving from their first encounter in Bermeja to marriage in London and travels to such places as Saint Tropez Tangier and Santa Clara Helen and Christopher must decide how much they exist for themselves and how much they exist for each other In an effort to build his firm Christopher leads a life full of speed and ambition with little time for Helen and even less when he suspects his business partner of illegal activity Helen a reluctant voyeur to Christopher's world of power and position searches far and wide for reporting work that will take a bite out of her soul refugees in Calais a mountain climber in Chamonix an orphaned circus performer in Cuba A Theory of Love captures the ambivalence at the center of human experience does one reside in the familiar comforts of solitude or dare to open one's heart and risk having it broken Set in some of the most picturesque places in the world this novel questions what it means to love someone and leaves us wondering can nothing save us but a fall Book Notes Illustrated ,1924 Good Words ,1879 Homiletical Commentary on the Song of Solomon Thomas Robinson (Presbyterian Minister.),1877
