Lorenzo Baravalle, Luciana Zaterka

Life Science Essay Paper 1 2014 Final Exam:

Unforgettable W. Michael Gray, 2016-10-12 We have an uneasy relationship with the relentless deluge of information gushing out of academia and our media outlets To turn it off is escapist but to attempt to cognitively grapple with it is overwhelming In Unforgettable Enabling Deep and Durable Learning a nationally recognized master teacher gives professors and their students the means to chart a clear path through this information explosion Humans crave explanatory patterns and this book enables teachers to think deeply about their academic disciplines to find and articulate their core explanatory principles and to engage their students in a compelling way of thinking An alternative title for this book could be Why the Best College Teachers Do What They Do because the author articulates a compelling rationale that will equip faculty to create and deliver transformative courses Students in transformative courses grapple with essential questions and gain mental muscle that equips them for real world challenges

Life and Evolution Lorenzo Baravalle, Luciana Zaterka, 2020-04-10 This book offers to the international reader a collection of original articles of some of the most skillful historians and philosophers of biology currently working in Latin American universities During the last decades increasing attention has been paid in Latin America to the history and philosophy of biology but since many local authors prefer to write in Spanish or in Portuguese their ideas have barely crossed the boundaries of the continent This volume aims to remedy this state of things providing a good sample of this production to the English speaking readers bringing together contributions from researchers working in Brazilian Argentinean Chilean Colombian and Mexican universities The stress on the regional provenance of the authors is not intended to suggest the existence of something like a Latin American history and philosophy of biology supposedly endowed with distinctive features On the contrary the editors firmly believe that advances in this field can be achieved only by stimulating the integration in the international debate Based on this assumption the book focuses on two topics life and evolution and presents a selection of contributions addressing issues such as the history of the concept of life the philosophical reflection on life manipulation and life extension the structure and development of evolutionary theory as well as human evolution Life and Evolution Latin American Essays on the History and Philosophy of Biology will provide the international reader with a rather complete picture of the ongoing research in the history and philosophy of biology in Latin America offering a snapshot of this dynamic community It will also contribute to contextualize and develop the debate concerning life and evolution and the relation between the two phenomena
