Drawing on extensive research, it offers a poignant narrative that seeks to illuminate the nuanced journey these educators embark upon as they transition from teacher education spaces to the complex reality of classrooms in post-Apartheid South Africa. The book acts as a crucial platform for the voices of NQTs, shedding light on the myriad enablers and disablers they encounter during this transformative period. Timely and relevant, it tackles pressing questions about the readiness of teacher education to prepare students for the demands of South African schools. The book charts the transition from teacher education to active teacher for NQTs. The lessons distilled from this research present a clarion call for a re-assessment of teacher education policies and practices. This book arrives at a pivotal moment as South Africa reviews its teacher education policies. With the quality of initial teacher education programmes

Sexualities Tamara Shefer, Jeff Hearn, 2022-07-27 This book troubles the ways young people have been constructed as trouble through critical readings of the effects and impacts politically and ideologically globally and locally of scholarship and practice directed at South African young people's sexualities over the last three decades of addressing HIV GBV and other sexual and gender justice challenges Located primarily in South Africa the book speaks to global concerns about the politics of knowledge and transnational flows of information and practice with respect to gender and sexuality and is framed by global imperatives and analyses located in transnational postcolonial and intersectional feminist frameworks The key argument developed here and explored in relation to several different forms of research and practice is that efforts to challenge HIV GBV and unequal sexual and gender practices among young people particularly as evident in heterosexual relationships have tended to reflect and reproduce re new ed orthodoxies about sexuality gender family and young people while bolstering global and local racist classist othering of certain communities and nation states and reiterating the innocence and authority of those already privileged and centred The book contributes to critical reflexive work on global practices of knowledge and its complex enmeshment with power in the terrain of sexual and gender justice work aimed at young people
