The Routledge International Handbook of Deindustrialization Studies Tim Strangleman, Sherry Lee Linkon, Steven High, Jackie Clarke, Stefan Berger, 2025-04-23 The Routledge International Handbook of Deindustrialization Studies is a timely volume that provides an overview of this interdisciplinary field that emerged in response to the widespread decline of manufacturing and heavy industry from the 1980s onward. Edited by prominent figures in the field the volume brings together many of the leading scholars from a range of countries across the globe to offer a multifaceted overview of deindustrialization and its impact. Deindustrialization has been cited as one of the factors behind the rise of the far right and to a lesser extent the far left across Europe the rise and success of Trumpism in the US and the Brexit vote as well as the more recent and sudden erosion of UK Labour's Red Wall of the North of England. This collection brings together scholars of deindustrialization around the globe and from a wide variety of academic disciplines including history, sociology, politics, geography, economics, anthropology, literature, arts, practice, photography, heritage and cultural studies. In doing so the volume explores the roots of deindustrialization across the world, highlights the key themes and issues in the field, illustrates the intersectional and interdisciplinary character of the field and shows how deindustrialization lies at the heart of many of the key political, cultural, social and economic issues of our time. Written in a clear and accessible style, the Handbook is a comprehensive interdisciplinary volume for this young but maturing field. The volume is a valuable resource for students, teachers and researchers interested in industrial decline, closure and the multifaceted impacts they cause. It speaks to readers across the arts, humanities and social and political sciences concerned with deindustrialization broadly defined. Chapter 27 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 International license.

Working-Class People in UK Higher Education Jess Pilgrim-Brown, Teresa Crew, Éireann Attridge, 2025-10-13. Guided by a collaborative and community oriented editorial process which embodies the ethos of working class communities, chapters focus on five main section areas: academics, students and student journeys, pedagogy, teaching, learning, non-academic staff in Higher Education and a final section dedicated to practical steps for the future. The New Urban Crisis Richard Florida, 2017-04-11. In recent years the young, educated and affluent have surged back into cities, reversing decades of suburban flight and urban decline. And yet all is not well. Richard Florida argues in The New Urban Crisis that Florida, one of the first scholars to anticipate this back to the city movement in his groundbreaking The Rise of the Creative Class, demonstrates how the same forces that power the growth of the world's superstar cities also generate their vexing challenges: gentrification, unaffordability, segregation and inequality. Meanwhile, many more cities still stagnate and middle-class neighborhoods everywhere are disappearing. Our winner-take-all cities are just one manifestation of a profound crisis in today's urbanized knowledge economy. A bracingly original work of research and analysis, The New Urban Crisis offers a compelling diagnosis of our economic ills and a bold prescription for more inclusive cities capable of ensuring growth and prosperity for all.
