Geography Study Scope For Grade 1s 2014:

Assessment in Geographical Education: An International Perspective Theresa Bourke, Reece Mills, Rod Lane, 2022-02-27 In recent years there has been increased attention paid to the importance of assessment in Geographical Education the chosen subject for this book Assessment is an important tool for collecting information about student learning and for providing timely data to inform key stakeholders including students teachers parents and policymakers To be effective assessment needs to be valid reliable and fair Validity is about ensuring that we assess what we claim we are assessing Reliability is about measuring performance and understanding in a consistent way Without validity and reliability assessment is unlikely to provide equitable opportunities for students to demonstrate what they know and can do As geography educators it is therefore important that we identify the core concepts and skills in geography that we want students to master We need a clear understanding of what the progression of learning looks like for each concept and skill so we can develop fit for purpose assessments that track and improve student learning While there is a substantial literature on evidence based assessment in secondary school contexts research exploring best practice assessment in geography is rare This is a concern given the distinctive nature of geography and the important role of assessment in the learning process This scholarly collection seeks to address this issue by connecting research in educational assessment with the domain of geography The chapters are written by leading researchers in Geographical Education from across the globe These chapters provide examples of innovation through the collective voices of geography teacher educator scholars from across Australia USA South Korea Germany Switzerland and Singapore What unifies the work in this book is that each chapter focuses on a key feature of the discipline of geography providing scholarly examples of evidence based practices for assessing student s knowledge and skills

Textbooks and Educational Media: Perspectives from Subject Education Péter Bagoly-Simó, Zuzana Sikorová, 2021-08-05 This book brings together empirical research and conceptual work on textbooks and education media from 13 countries and 17 disciplines Along with textbook production usage and development it also explores the interconnectedness of educational policy and teaching and learning materials Further the book offers insights into regional and local discourses e g specific theories of Portuguese and Spanish speaking countries as well as Nordic countries contrasting their theories with international literature practices and solutions with regard to teaching selected subjects at the pre primary primary secondary and tertiary level This book also discusses the specific combinations of subjects e g Physics Biology Geography Swedish English and their subject specific education e g Physics Education or Didactics Lastly it examines the work of a number of early career researchers giving them a voice and bringing in fresh ideas currently being developed in various countries around the globe This proceedings volume will appeal to publishers subject educators in primary secondary and tertiary education and academic researchers from the fields of textbooks educational media and subject specific education Its international authorship and explicit focus on subject specific particularities of educational media provide a unique and comprehensive overview      Geographical Reasoning and Learning Sonia Maria Vanzella Castellar, Marcelo Garrido-Pereira, Nubia Moreno Lache, 2021-09-15 This book presents the distinctive theoretical and methodological approaches in geography education in South America and more specifically in Brazil Chile and Colombia It highlights cartography and maps as essential tools and provides a meaningful approach to learning in geographical education thereby giving children and young people the opportunity to better understand their situations contexts and social conditions The book describes how South American countries organize their scholar curriculum and the ways in which they deal with geography vocabulary and developing fundamental concepts methodologies epistemological comprehension on categories keywords and themes in geography It also describes its use in teachers practices and learning progressions the use of spatial representations as a potent mean to visualize and solve questions and harnesses spatial thinking and geographical reasoning development The book helps to improve teaching and learning practices in primary and secondary education and as such it provides an interesting read for researchers students and teachers of geography and social studies      Controversial Issues in Social Studies Education in Turkey Elvan Gunel, 2018-08-24 This volume analyzes controversial topics to understand Turkish society and culture It explores how Turkish educators perceive these issues and provides insights on re organizing education in Turkey and globally It considers the views of social studies teachers on teaching controversial issues offering a holistic perspective      Routledge Handbook of Marxian Economics David M. Brennan, David Kristjanson-Gural, Catherine P. Mulder, Erik K. Olsen, 2017-03-16 Most developed economies are characterized by high levels of inequality and an inability to provide stability or opportunity for many of their citizens Mainstream economics has proven to be of little assistance in addressing these systemic failures and this has led both scholars and students to seek alternatives One such alternative is provided by Marxian economics In recent decades the field has seen tremendous theoretical development and Marxian perspectives have begun to appear in public discourse in unprecedented ways This handbook contains thirty seven original essays from a wide range of leading international scholars recognized for their expertise in different areas of Marxian economics Its scope is broad ranging from contributions on familiar Marxist concepts such as value theory the labor process accumulation crisis and socialism to others not always associated with the Marxian canon like feminism ecology international migration and epistemology This breadth of coverage reflects the development of Marxian economic and social theory and encompasses both the history and the frontiers of current scholarship This handbook provides an extensive statement of the current shape and future direction of Marxian economics The Routledge Handbook of Marxian Economics is an invaluable resource for students researchers and policy makers seeking guidance in this field It is designed to serve both as a reference work and as a supplementary text for classroom use with applications for courses in economics sociology political science management anthropology development studies philosophy and history      Handbook of Gentrification Studies Loretta Lees, Martin Phillips, 2018-04-27 It is now over 50 years since the term gentrification was first coined by the British urbanist Ruth Glass in 1964 in which time gentrification studies has become a subject in its own right This Handbook the first ever in gentrification studies is a critical and authoritative assessment of the field Although the Handbook does not seek to rehearse the classic literature on gentrification from the 1970s to the 1990s in detail it is referred to in the new assessments of the field gathered in this volume The original chapters offer an important dialogue between existing theory and new conceptualisations of gentrification for new times and new places in many cases offering novel empirical evidence

Insights into Disciplinary Literacies Ainara Imaz Agirre,Roberto Arias-Hermoso,2025-11-28 Offers fresh perspectives on academic and disciplinary literacies across a range of contexts This book presents empirical evidence of the academic and disciplinary literacies that learners engage with in educational contexts The chapters focus on the languages of schooling in first second or foreign language contexts across primary secondary and higher education The book is divided into two main sections The first section focuses on students voices and perceptions providing new insights into the difficulties they encounter when developing academic or disciplinary literacies in different contexts and disciplines The second section addresses students academic or disciplinary literacy skills both productive and receptive The chapters include qualitative quantitative and mixed method studies and provide valuable new insights across a range of educational contexts
