Integrative Learning Daniel

Blackshields, James Cronin, Bettie Higgs, Shane Kilcommings, Marian McCarthy, Anthony Ryan, 2014-11-13 Current teaching learning and assessment practices can lead students to believe that courses within a programme are self sufficient and separate Integrative Learning explores this issue and considers how intentional learning helps students become integrative thinkers who can see connections in seemingly disparate information and draw on a wide range of knowledge to make decisions Written by international contributors who engaged reflectively with their teaching and their students learning the book seeks to develop a shared language of integrative learning encouraging students to adapt skills learned in one situation to problems encountered in another and make autonomous connections across courses between experiences and throughout their lives More informed teachers can help students develop the necessary attributes for intentional learning which include having a sense of purpose fitting fragmentary information into a learning framework understanding something of their own learning processes asking probing questions reflecting on their own choices and knowing when to ask for help Integrative Learning draws on international research and vast studies to provide the reader with the resources to ensure access to a unified learning experience The book discusses conceptual and technical tools necessary for facilitating integrative learning across a range of disciplines as well as providing learning pedagogies and considers integrative learning in the context of the relevance of higher education in the complexity and uncertainty of the 21st century It will appeal to academics and researchers in the field of higher education as well as those generating higher education curriculums

Higher education's response to the Covid-19 pandemic Sjur Bergan, Tony Gallagher, Ronaldo Munck, Hilligje van't Land, 2021-02-15 A particularly timely book given the high proportion of international students and staff in higher education Public health was the immediate concern when the Covid 19 pandemic struck in Asia then in Europe and other parts of the world The response of our education systems is no less vital Higher education has played a major role in responding to the pandemic and it must help shape a better more equitable and just post Covid 19 world This book explores the various responses of higher education to the pandemic across Europe and North America with contributions also from Africa Asia and South America The contributors write from the perspective of higher education leaders with institutional responsibility as well as from that of public authorities or specialists in specific aspects of higher education policy and practice Some contributions analyse how specific higher education institutions reacted while others reflect on the impact of Covid 19 on key issues such as internationalisation finance academic freedom and institutional autonomy inclusion and equality and public responsibility The book describes the various ways in which higher education is facing the Covid 19 pandemic It is designed to help universities specifically their staff and students as well as their partners contribute to a more sustainable and democratic future

Community-Based Research and Higher Education Kerry Strand, 2003-05-30 Community Based Research and Higher Education is the long awaited guide to how to incorporate a powerful and promising new form of scholarship into academic settings The book presents a model of community based research CBR that engages community members with students and faculty in the course of their academic work Unlike traditional academic research CBR is collaborative and change oriented and finds its research questions in the needs of communities This dynamic research model combines classroom learning with social action in ways that can ultimately empower community groups to address their own agendas and shape their own futures At the same time it emphasizes the development of knowledge and skills that truly prepare students for active civic engagement Community Based Research and Higher Education is written by five academics from different disciplines with extensive experience in community based research as teachers researchers administrators scholars and community activists They draw on their own and others experience to develop concrete guidelines for creating and sustaining partnerships through CBR projects as they also outline the principles that guide decisions about research design and methods The authors offer extensive practical suggestions for incorporating CBR into courses and curricula include voices and experiences of people from across the country who are doing CBR on their campuses and in their communities and describe a wide range of exemplary research projects with diverse community partners such as the Southwest Improvement Council in Denver Washington D C s Council of Latino Agencies and Youthbuild a job training program based in New Jersey The authors conclude by detailing a series of action steps that can help institutions realize a vision of higher education based on research oriented campus community partnerships

Higher Education for Democratic Innovation Sjur Bergan,Tony Gallagher,Ira Harkavy,2015 Democracy is increasingly the standard against which societies are measured The term democratic culture designates the set of attitudes and behaviours that citizens need to have for democratic institutions and laws to function in practice This is an important development from older perceptions of democracy which focused on institutions laws and procedures It is a recognition that democracy will not function unless citizens want it to function In all countries there are committed individuals aspiring to make their societies better democracies As the Secretary General of the Council of Europe Thorbj rn Jagland has said on several occasions our societies seek to address 21st century issues through 19th century institutions Through contributions by authors from Europe North America and other parts of the world this book explores how higher education can help find new ways to develop commitment to public space and societal engagement and make democracy more vibrant

Higher Education for Diversity, Social Inclusion and Community Sjur Bergan,Ira Harkavy,2018 How does the Council of Europe put into practice its commitment to the promotion of a culture of democracy through education Over the past decade or so our societies have been facing increasing difficulties in reconciling acceptance of diversity and social inclusion with the need for community The search for simple solutions to complex problems the fact that fake news and alternative facts are no longer seen as nonsensical expressions our responses to migration and the refugee crisis and the growth of populism in many parts of Europe present challenges to our societies and not least to education Authors from Europe North America and South Africa outline how higher education could respond to these challenges The first section makes a strong case for the continuing importance of higher education and research to modern society The second focuses on higher education institutions and the need for inclusive and diverse campuses The third section considers opportunities to improve the inclusion of refugees and immigrants in higher education Whereas the focus in Europe is mostly on refugees in the United States it is largely on immigrants further accentuated by the debate on the Dreamers Creating a Better World Anna Clarke,2009 Integrating Research Into Undergraduate Education ,2004
