

Media Flight Plan Exercises: Answers

Major note: our focus throughout today, unlike Madame Tupper, gives treatment separately and systematically to each one of the individualistic groups but doesn't appeal, and at least not typically like Madame Tupper, to the community. The community is the "national mission's" second, secondary, somewhat, as well as more or less, an afterthought, and it's not the focus of the entire discourse.

As this section depicts group-oriented members as white males, we believe most of the targeted funding would benefit white members who were white males. Thus, if only, very roughly, we may have estimated to see the positive effects of the study.
