Davis, Elizabeth Davis, 2011-08-09 Realizing that most students in an introductory managerial accounting course are not going to major in accounting, this book seeks to position managerial accounting in a broader context of business decision making. Pref Environmental Management Accounting Christian Herzig, Tobias Viere, Stefan Schaltegger, Roger L. Burritt, 2012-03-15 Sustainable development will not happen without substantial contributions from and leading roles of companies and business organizations. This requires the provision of adequate information on corporate social and ecological impacts and performance. For the last decade, progress has been made in developing and adapting accounting mechanisms to these needs, but significant work is still needed to tackle the problems associated with conventional accounting. Until recently, research on environmental management accounting (EMA) has concentrated on developed countries and on cost-benefit analysis of implementing individual EMA tools. Using a comparative case study design, this book seeks to redress the balance and improve the understanding of EMA in management decision making in emerging countries, focussing specifically on South East Asian companies. Drawing on 12 case studies taken from a variety of industries, Environmental Management Accounting Case Studies of South East Asian Companies explores the relationship between decision situations and the motivation for and barriers to the application of clusters of EMA tools, as well as the implementation process itself. This book will be useful to scholars interested in the environmental and sustainability management accounting research field and those considering specific approaches to EMA within emerging economies. Advances in Islamic Finance, Marketing, and Management Dilip Mutum, Mohammad Mohsin Butt, Mamunur Rashid, 2016-12-22 Of interest to both academics and practitioners who assist in making Shariah-centric strategies, this work is particularly important as Asia holds a major percentage of Islamic assets in South Asia, Southeast Asia, and the Middle East, with new opportunities opening in Central Asia. Fundamental Managerial Accounting Concepts Thomas P. Edmonds, Bor-Yi Tsay, Philip R. Olds, 2008 This edition focuses on concepts that are isolated in a logical sequence It explains how accountants manipulate financial statements discusses the three common features of criminal and ethical misconduct including opportunity pressure and rationalization and much more

Tipton,2007 Frank Tipton s book is a comparative study of the management structures of Asian firms As Asian economies continue to expand the management of Asian firms becomes ever more important whether they are suppliers customers partners or rivals As the author argues Asian firms are very different from their Western counterparts and these differences reflect the variations in national history and institutions within which they operate Asian Firmscompares Chinese Japanese Korean and Southeast Asian management structures and sets them in their historical and institutional context Based on a wide range of interviews and material drawn from a variety of disciplines the argument is framed by the sayings of the legendary strategist Sun Tzu and the renowned businessman Tao Zhu gong A series of case studies illustrate the strengths and weaknesses of the approaches of managers in each of the national traditions Asian Firmsasks in each case what Western managers can learn from Asian firms and what Asian firms can learn from each other With a multidisciplinary approach and emphasis on practical lessons and tools the book will be of great use and interest for managers It will also appeal to students and researchers of international business postgraduate management students in courses with a comparative or Asian emphasis as well as academics and researchers of Asian studies The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2007 The Writers Directory ,2013 CMA ,1992 International Books in Print ,1997 Guide to Indian Periodical Literature ,2008 ADB Publications Asian Development Bank,2006 Asian Hotel & Catering Times ,2007
