Meeting The Challenge Innovative Feminist Pedagogies In Action:

Meeting the Challenge Ellen Rose, 1999-03-16 This collection demonstrates how feminist pedagogy can be implemented in a variety of institutional and disciplinary settings Unlike most of the current literature it provides a vast array of examples of feminist pedagogy in action It suggests practical ways of creating classroom environments open to feminist and anti racist teaching way feminists at universities can intervene in community programs and how to apply feminist pedagogy to new challenges such as distance education cyberspace fiscal constraints and the changing political climate Meeting the Challenge also looks to other nations for examples of how to successfully implement feminist pedagogy

Meeting the Challenge ,1999      Feminist Pedagogy in Higher Education Tracy Penny Light, Jane Nicholas, Renée Bondy, 2015-07-31 In this new collection contributors from a variety of disciplines provide a critical context for the relationship between feminist pedagogy and academic feminism by exploring the complex ways that critical perspectives can be brought into the classroom This book discusses the processes employed to engage learners by challenging them to ask tough questions and craft complex answers wrestle with timely problems and posit innovative solutions and grapple with ethical dilemmas for which they seek just resolutions Diverse experiences interests and perspectives together with the various teaching and learning styles that participants bring to twenty first century universities necessitate inventive and evolving pedagogical approaches and these are explored from a critical perspective The contributors collectively consider the implications of the theory practice divide which remains central within academic feminism s role as both a site of social and gender justice and as a part of the academy and map out some of the ways in which academic feminism is located within the academy today      Theorizing Backlash Anita M. Superson, Ann E. Cudd, 2002 Contrary to the popular belief that feminism has gained a foothold in the many disciplines of the academy the essays collected in Theorizing Backlash argue that feminism is still actively resisted in mainstream academia Contributors to this volume consider the professional philosophical and personal backlashes against feminist thought and reflect upon their ramifications The conclusion is that the disdain and irrational resentment of feminism even in higher education amounts to a backlash against progress      Women's Studies for the Future Elizabeth Lapovsky Kennedy, Agatha Beins, 2005 Established as an academic field in the 1970s women s studies is a relatively young but rapidly growing area of study Not only has the number of scholars working in this subject expanded exponentially but women s studies has become institutionalized offering graduate degrees and taking on departmental status in many colleges and universities At the same time this field formed in the wake of the feminist movement is finding itself in a precarious position in what is now often called a post feminist society This raises challenging issues for faculty students and administrators How must the field adjust its goals and methods to continue to affect change in the future Bringing together essays by newcomers as well as veterans to the field this essential volume addresses timely questions including Without a unitary understanding of the subject woman what is the focus of women s studies How can women s studies fulfill the promise of interdisciplinarity What is the continuing place of activism in women s studies What are the best ways to think about teach and act upon the intersections of race class gender disability nation and sexuality Offering innovative models for research and teaching and compelling new directions for action Women s Studies for the Future ensures the continued relevance and influence of this developing field      Letters from the Future Brenda Jarmon, Deborah A. Brunson, Linda L. Lampl, 2023-07-03 This volume provides insights into the teaching and learning practices and experiences of diversity educators and their students College level teachers from such disciplines as biology social work sex education communication political science English literature and criminology share their general philosophy of teaching and the challenges they face in the classroom This unique book integrates compelling letters from former students within each teacher s chapter These narratives provide insightful observations about diversity lessons learned while in class and how classroom experiences have transferred to these former students professional and personal lives This book will be useful to college teachers who currently teach courses with a diversity focused content or who plan to incorporate diversity content within an existing course Directors of teaching and learning centers coordinators of doctoral programs and TA centers will also find helpful information and insights about pedagogy process and learning outcomes      Clio in the Classroom Carol Berkin, Margaret S. Crocco, Barbara Winslow, 2009-02-02 Over the last four decades women s history has developed from a new and marginal approach to history to an established and flourishing area of the discipline taught in all history departments Clio in the Classroom makes accessible the content key themes and concepts and pedagogical techniques of U S women s history for all secondary school and college teachers Editors Carol Berkin Margaret S Crocco and Barbara Winslow have brought together a diverse group of educators to provide information and tools for those who are constructing a new syllabus or revitalizing an existing one The essays in this volume provide concise up to date overviews of American women s history from colonial times to the present that include its ethnic racial and regional changes They look at conceptual frameworks key to understanding women s history and American history such as sexuality citizenship consumerism and religion And they offer concrete approaches for the classroom including the use of oral history visual resources material culture and group learning The volume also features a guide to print and digital resources for further information This is an invaluable guide for women and men preparing to incorporate the study of women into their classes as well as for those seeking fresh perspectives for their teaching      Digital Hemlock Tara Brabazon, 2002 This wide ranging book examines the state of tertiary education in Australia and exposes the myths and assumptions on which current education policy is based This book should be of interest to all academics and students in Australia Tara Brabazon is a senior lecturer at Murdoch University in Perth      Composing Feminism(s) Kay Siebler, 2008 Offers a comprehensive definition of feminist pedagogy culled from over three decades of scholarship This book focuses on the field of composition and how feminist theories of pedagogy have changed the field of writing instruction      Resources for Feminist Research , 2003      The

Feminist Classroom Frances A. Maher, Mary Kay Thompson Tetreault, 2001-04-11 Feminist scholars have demonstrated that American higher education has long represented a white male privileged minority The professors here bring together the twin upheavals that have challenged this tradition namely a rapidly changing student body and the more inclusive knowledge of feminist and multicultural scholarship They uncover the voices concerns and experiences of groups hitherto marginalized in higher education women people of color and working class students Feminist Issues Nancy Mandell, 2004 Journal of Public Service & Outreach, 2000 The Enterprising University Gareth L. Williams, 2003 What has been the impact in universities and colleges of the new cultures of enterprise and entrepreneurialism What are the implications for equity and access for quality and diversity for research and teaching and for students and staff This title explores answers to these questions and more NWSA Journal, 2006 Teaching Science in Diverse Settings Angela Calabrese Barton, Margery D. Osborne, 2001 Annotation K 12 science teachers and science education professors mostly from the US present 12 essays addressing current debates over schooling focusing on the need for liberatory education the social construction of science and identity and systems of race class and gender oppression and domination Includes case studies in which a number of theoretical approaches are used in classroom practice Annotation c Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com

Education for Sustainable Development Chris Shiel, 2007 Interrupting Heteronormativity Mary Queen, Kathleen Farrell, Nisha Gupta, 2005 Aims to make visible the everyday seemingly inconsequential ways in which classrooms become sites for the reinforcement of heteronormative ideologies and practices that inhibit student learning and student teacher interactions and to aid educators in identifying and working with students to avoid marginalization in the classroom SIROW., 2000 Surviving the System Maricela Teresa DeMirjyn, 2005
