The European Renaissance, the Reformation, and Global Encounter Gloria K. Fiero, 1998 This text is part of a six volume work which offers an overview of art, music, literature, history and philosophy. Book 3 explores the European Renaissance, the reformation and the global encounter. It looks at the 14th century transitions, classical humanism, Renaissance artists, reforms and cross-cultural encounters in Africa and the Americas. The text focuses on the Western tradition but also includes strong coverage of other cultures setting the arts of the West in the larger arena of world cultures including India, the East Africa and Native America. Throughout the chronological narrative there is a focus on universal themes integrating ideas and issues that relate to the human condition. The coverage of literature, art, music and architecture is integrated into discussions of cultural and political influences aiming to create a logical presentation of broad subject matter.

Perspectives on Rethinking Evil in Film and Television Tüysüz, Dilan, 2020-12-22 Aestheticization of evil is a frequently used formula in cinema and television. However, the representation of evil as an aesthetic object pushes it out of morality. Moral judgments can be pushed aside when evil is aestheticized in movies or TV series because there is no real victim. Thus, situations such as murder or war can become a source of aesthetic pleasure. Narratives in cinema and television can sometimes be based on a simple good-evil dichotomy and sometimes they can be based on individual or social experiences of evil and follow a more complicated method. Despite the various ways evil is depicted, it is a moral framework in film and television that must be researched to study the implications of aestheticized evil on human nature and society. International Perspectives on Rethinking Evil in Film and Television examines the changing representations of evil on screen in the context of the commonness, normalization, aestheticization, marginalization, legitimization or popularity of evil. The chapters provide an international perspective of the representations of evil through an exploration of the evil tales or villains in cinema and television. Through looking at these programs this book highlights topics such as the philosophy of good and evil, the portrayal of heroes and villains, the appeal of evil and evil's correspondence with gender and violence. This book is ideal for sociologists, professionals, researchers and students working or studying in the field of cinema and television and practitioners, academics and anyone interested in the portrayal and aestheticization of evil in international film and television.

Sims,2021-08-19 This book examines the writings of four ancient Greeks Homer Thucydides Euripides and Aristophanes. Each of these four individuals represents a different approach toward the human condition ranging from the heroic and tragic to the comic and absurd. This book focuses on how the human condition can best be understood within the framework of these four perspectives by examining the major contributions of these Greek writers whether in the form of epic Homer's Iliad history Thucydides History of the Peloponnesian War or drama the plays of Euripides and Aristophanes. These various perceptions of Greek thought illuminate our understanding of what it means to be fully human. By focusing on the concepts of the heroic tragic comic and absurd we can see how these ancient Greek authors still provide key insights for us today as they clarify those timeless features that define the human condition. The Humanistic Tradition Volume I: Prehistory to the Early Modern World Gloria Fiero,2010-01-29 Interdisciplinary in approach and topical in focus the sixth edition of The Humanistic Tradition continues to bring to life humankind's creative legacy. Books Out Loud,2007 The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,James Louis Garvin,1926 Global Common Good Michael Reder,2015-04-02 Global problems such as poverty climate change and economic crises constitute challenges that the global community can only face collectively. It therefore seems indispensable to engage in an intercultural dialogue on alternative approaches to development that are ethically justifiable politically acceptable and ecologically sustainable. For this reason the Institute for Social and Development Studies at the Munich School of Philosophy in cooperation with MISEREOR the German Catholic Bishops Organization for Development Cooperation invited academics from different continents to engage in such an intercultural dialogue. Under the notion of the global common good the contributors investigate normative ideals analyze obstacles that prevent their realization and indicate paths for transformation. Resources in Education,1989 Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic, ...
