WRITING SERVICES - UNCW - DEPAOLO HALL, 1ST FLOOR - 962-7857

To write a good research paper, you must ask a good historical question.

History is the study of change over time. When somebody writes a history paper or book, she is offering an interpretation of how and why something changed over time.

So a historical question is one that asks how to interpret change over time.

Not every question about the past is a historical question. Historical questions address change and how to interpret that change. They must have boundaries of time, place, and people.

Bad: How did African-Americans react to World War Two?

Better: How did Southern African-Americans react to the draft in World War Two?

Best: How and why did lower class African-Americans from North and South Carolina respond to the draft from 1941-1945?

This last question focuses research on a specific group of people in a specific place during a specific time. Because there is a response over a period of time, it allows several answers, including how their response could have changed over the time period.

A good question is also one that is significant. You should be able to say why it is important to answer this question.

Your interpretation must be supported by the primary sources. You need evidence to support your interpretation. Different interpretations are possible, so why should the reader believe yours over someone else's?

To come up with a question, pick a narrow topic.

The easiest way to pick a topic — picking something general or really famous (e.g.: Civil War, Nazis, WWII) — will leave you with too broad of a topic. You need direction and focus; otherwise, you will have too much information or will get bored with what you already know. It is not that there is nothing new to learn about those kinds of topics, but if you cannot say exactly what new thing you want to learn about it, you are probably not as interested in it as you think you are. You must have an interest in an aspect of the topic or a desire to explore it from a different angle (e.g. the draft in WWII).

Try picking something that really interests you. Pick something you have questions about. Pick something you are willing to read a lot about.

Do not pick something that you have already made up your mind about, unless you are willing to change your mind based on the evidence.

Reasons for the Fall of the Aztec Empire Stasj

Adams, 2011-02 Seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject American Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 10 University of Paderborn Anglistik und Amerikanistik course Chicano and Chicana Literature and Culture language English abstract: The capital of Mexico Mexico City is located on the remains of an old city. This city which was once big and gorgeous and was called Tenochtitlan was razed to the ground in a very short period of time and in a very cruel manner by foreign invaders on August 13th 1521. Once Tenochtitlan was a capital city of the Aztecs or how they called themselves Mexica which they founded in the year 1325. In the course of only few centuries they managed to establish an immense empire which is known as the Aztec empire today. The Mexica Aztecs mark the beginning of the Mexican culture. Thus in this term paper I will be dealing with the Chicano culture at its very beginning. Who were the Aztecs? What does Aztec mean? Where did they come from? And how did they manage to establish such a big and powerful empire? Why Tenochtitlan has been destroyed? This term paper works with these questions In order to answer them a little journey through the history has to be done Hence this term paper also offers an overview of the most important events that occurred at that time But my primary concern will be to find out how the European invaders managed to overthrow the Aztec empire Or how could the Aztec empire fall to a small group of Spanish invaders How is it possible In other words I would like to find out the reasons for the fall of the Aztec empire A paper about the history and especially the Ancient history is a hard venture Because of a great variety of secondary literature and accordingly of the different opinions and views of the authors of this books relating to this theme one can quickly lose track of things The analysis is getting even more difficult because we have only few source documents from the Aztecs today so t A History of the County of Inverness (Mainland) James Cameron Lees,1897 The Memorial History of Boston: The last hundred years, pt.
