Lucky Peach Issue 13:

Authentic Writing Jeffrey Rice, 2021-04-20 In typical academic circles texts must be critiqued mined for the obfuscated meanings they hide and shown to reveal larger broader meanings than what are initially evident To engage in this type of writing is to perform an authentic version of scholarship But what if a scholar chooses instead to write without critique What if they write about travelling their children food grocery shopping frozen garlic bread sandwiches condiments falafel yoga and moments that normally wouldn't be considered scholarly Can the writing still be scholarly Can scholarly writing be authentic if its topics comprise the everyday In Authentic Writing Jeff Rice uses this question to trace a position regarding critique the role of the scholar the role of the personal in scholarship the banal as subject matter and the idea of authenticity He explores authenticity as a writing issue a rhetorical issue a consumption issue a culture issue and an ideological issue Rather than arguing for a more authentic state or practice Rice examines the rhetorical features of authenticity in order to expand the focus of scholarship

Salted and Cured Jeffrey Roberts, 2017 From country ham to coppa bacon to bresaola Prosciutto Andouille Country ham The extraordinary rise in popularity of cured meats in recent years often overlooks the fact that the ancient practice of meat preservation through the use of salt time and smoke began as a survival technique All over the world various cultures developed ways to extend the viability of the hunt and later the harvest according to their unique climates and environments resulting in the astonishing diversity of preserved meats that we celebrate and enjoy today everywhere from corner delis to white tablecloth restaurants In Salted and Cured author Jeffrey P Roberts traces the origins of today's American charcuterie salumi and other delights and connects them to a current renaissance that begins to rival those of artisan cheese and craft beer In doing so Roberts highlights the incredible stories of immigrant butchers breeders chefs entrepreneurs and other craftspeople who withstood the modern era's push for bland industrial food to produce not only delicious but culturally significant cured meats By rejecting the industry led push for the other white meat and reinvigorating the breeding and production of heritage hog breeds while finding novel ways to utilize the entire animal snout to tail today's charcutiers and salumieri not only produce everything from country ham to violino di capra but create more sustainable businesses for farmers and chefs Weaving together agriculture animal welfare and health food safety and science economics history a deep sense of place and amazing preserved foods Salted and Cured is a literary feast a celebration of both innovation and time honored knowledge and an expertly guided tour of America's culinary treasures both old and new
